HUD and USDA programs play an important role in providing affordable homes to extremely low-income (ELI) families across the state. Many of the publicly supported homes, however, face expiring rent restrictions and are at risk of becoming unaffordable to the state’s lowest income families.

KEY FACTS

- -8,201: Shortage of rental homes affordable and available for ELI renters
- 70%: Percent of ELI households spending more than half of their income on rent
- 7,972: Number of publicly supported rental homes
- 295: Number of publicly supported rental homes with affordability restrictions expiring in the next five years

50% publicly supported rental homes across the state receive Low Income Housing Tax Credits.

*Other includes Section 236 HUD Insured Mortgages, Section 202 Direct Loans, and Section 236.

Note: Rental units can be supported by multiple programs.
