

Preservation Risk Dashboard: California

Insights on the exit risks impacting the affordable housing stock across in California

Data from the National Housing Preservation Database 2024

Federally Assisted Homes Set to Expire in the Next Five Years

53,500

Federally Assisted Homes Preserved in 2024

4,439

Average Age of Federally Assisted Homes

26

What is exit risk?

Exit risk is the potential for affordability or eligibility restrictions to expire or be terminated. This leads to the loss of homes from the nation’s affordable housing stock. Data-driven insights can help us understand the threat of exit risk in order to preserve affordable homes across the country.

Federally Assisted Homes Facing Exit Risk Over Time

11.8% of federally assisted homes face an expiring affordability restriction in the next five years

Exit Risk Characteristics for Federally Assisted Homes Expiring in the Next Five Years

84.9% of federally assisted homes expiring in the next five years have not recieved a capital subsidy in 20 years

Federally Assisted Homes Set to Expire in the Next Five Years by Program

63.1% federally assisted homes with expiring affordability restrictions in the next five years are assisted by Low Income Housing Tax Credits